7. Other

Edna Marr had contacted the Mayor about the alley behind her home. She said it was in bad condition and the people across the alley didn't do anything to clean it up. Mayor Gilley said he agreed that it was in bad shape and perhaps with the help of Comm. Crisp, he could clean it up. Mayor Gilley introduced Dan Cherry, Chairman of Operation PRIDE Mr. Cherry said the main objective of his organization was to assist the city and county in their efforts to create a better image when entering either the city limits or the county. Mr. Cherry showed a slide presentation to those in attendance of what he considered to be trouble spots that needed some attention throughout the city and the county as well as some businesses that had made an effort to change the appearances around their establishment. He also showed pictures of the new signs that Bowling Green and Warren County were investing in for city limit signs. He said the approximate cost of these signs was $2,000.00 and if Smiths Grove was interested in purchasing some he would be glad to assist them. After the slide presentation, Mr. Cherry called for questions or comments. Comm. Martin said she thought what his committee had accomplished thus far was impressive. He said he would like a representative from the Smiths Grove area to be a part of Operation PRIDE. Mayor Gilley ask the commissioners to bring three names to the August meeting for consideration as a member of this committee. He said they would review them, decide on a representative and the clerk could inform Mr. Cherry of their recommendaiton. Mayor Gilley then thanked Mr. Cherry for both his time and efforts.

With no further business to be presented, a motion to adjourn was heard.
